

Exchange Server 2007

Learn to Configure and Manage Your Own Exchange Server!

By David Shackelford

© Train Signal, Inc., 2002-2007

Video 1 Introduction to Video Series

© Train Signal, Inc., 2002-2007

Learning Exchange Server 2007

- Hands on coverage of this product
- 24 lessons, each between 35 and 70 minutes in length
- Why Exchange 2007?

© Train Signal, Inc., 2002-2007

Instructor

- Who am I?
 - Dave Shackelford
 - Network/System Engineer
 - Owner of Shackelford Consulting, Inc.
- What I bring to the table:
 - Ten years of Exchange administration
 - Microsoft Exchange MVP from 2004 through 2008
 - MCSE and CCNA
 - Partnering consultant
 - Occasional technical trainer and user group speaker

© Train Signal, Inc., 2002-2007

Areas we're going to cover – Part 1

- Pre-installation prep
- Installation
- Console tour
- Exchange PowerShell
- The Exchange 2007 database
- What it takes to “go live”
- Recipients and mailboxes
- Public folders
- Address lists
- Autodiscover
- Client Access Server role
- Outlook Web Access

© Train Signal, Inc., 2002-2007

Areas we're going to cover – Part 2

- POP3 and IMAP
- Hub Transport Server Role
- Compliance
- Edge Server Role
- Anti-Spam
- Anti-Virus
- Backup
- Recovery
- Transport Layer Security
- Advanced Mailbox Topics
- Exchange Tools
- SharePoint Integration

© Train Signal, Inc., 2002-2007
